I am writing on behalf of my daughter Myracle Davis.

Smart, charismatic, and thoughtful are a few words to describe Myracle Davis. Ms. Myracle is a beautiful young girl who is full of character and strength. She loves books and enjoys reading.

Myracle was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania where she currently resides with her mother and father. She is a very busy young lady, who spends a lot of her time on her hobbies which include ballet, piano, swimming, posing in front of the camera and playing with friends.

Although Myracle is only five years old, she has always dreamed of being on the big screen. She knows that she has a gift to share with the world. Her favorite movie is The Lion King, and she loves singing along with the movie. She aspires to be a model, actress and musician.

Sincerely,

Simone Dolphin
