Dear Future Agent/Manager,

It's nice to finally meet you!

I'm a female (think girly-girl), preteen/early teen, body/fat positive, sassy, smart, emotionally intelligent, popular, best-friend type. Gen-Alpha slang proficient. Can be loud and in your face, and/or super sensitive with my well-timed advice to less-aware peers. Might be seen as "overweight" by some, but I know I am beautiful.

I was most recently cast as "Evie" in Descendants with Broadway Bound Children's Theater in Seattle, WA. I was cast as "Grandma Josephine" in Willy Wonka in my first season with Broadway Bound Children's Theatre last fall. In my first musical performance last summer I was cast as "Peggy" in Hamilton.

I was honored to work with Larry Van Buren Jr., Jimmy Bellinger, and Philip Galinsky as mentors while creating my slate and monologue with Talent Auditions this spring. I have been told my timing and presence is special for my age.

I see myself doing work in commercial modeling while waiting for a role in a primetime series and/or film. I believe in myself, am motivated and easy to work with, and have great support from my family and community. I love being in front of an audience and it shows. Oh, and I love to sing—my voice is big and powerful and I've been told I have naturally great tone.

Please see my attached headshot, resume, and youtube video attachments. Thank you for your time and consideration. I would be so excited to work with you!
