

My name is Rebekah Cunningham, some of my interests are singing/songwriting, sometimes dancing even if I'm not all that great at it, reading, and listening to music. I have a pit bull that I love playing with and walking with. I love to spend time with my family and friends; My friends are like my second family and have helped me through really hard times and I will forever love them for it. I like going out and seeing new things and want to see the world; I have a whole list of places I would like to go to. Scary/haunted things and places have always fascinated me, and I would like to go to a lot of places that are said to be haunted. Some of my favorite youtubers to watch are Sam and Colby, and The Sturniolo Triplets, they always make me laugh when I'm upset.

I would like to be in the film industry, because ever since I was little, I would look up to the actors and actresses I would see on TV. When people ask me what I want to do with my life I've always come to the same answer, acting and singing. No matter what everyone said or tried to convince me otherwise it stayed the same. Now, being so close to the chance of being part of this industry I'm both excited and nervous. I would really love to be on TV shows and movies with my favorite actors and actresses, to be in a production with the people who helped me through a hard time in life and continue to do so. It would be an honor to even be considered in the industry in acting, modeling, and more.
