I'm Ella, im 9 years old, almost 10! I love being creative and expressing myself through the Arts and Acting. Being in the spotlight is the best. I love being the center of Attention. I can be shy at times but as soon and the lights turn on; i am a whole different kid.

I want to be in this industry because i get to pretend to be someone i usually am not. It is fun to preform and make people smile, laugh or maybe even Cry!

Sincerely,
Ella Ray
