

Hello!

My name is Seb, I am 7 and 11/12 years old (8 very soon).

I would love to work with you because acting makes me happy and I love working in role plays and playing different characters. It also gives me the chance to play a bad guy sometimes! I feel like I'm getting better every time I practice.

I would also like to model clothes or toys, which I think would be a lot of fun and I think I can cope with having to wait around for you sometimes.

My inspiration is Kevin in Home Alone and I like to watch this all year round.

Thank you for looking at my profile! I look forward to working with you.
