My name is Lexie, and firstly I would just like to say thank you for picking up my file, and thank you for reading.

So, I'm..... Me. One of a kind, bursting with sass, humour, pride and love. I encourage everyone to just be, well..... YOU! No-one does you, anywhere near as good as YOU! And don't let anyone tell you differently.

My passion is to be in acting and modelling. And I also love fashion design. I actually got a professional sewing machine, lifesize mannequin and fabrics from my mum for Christmas. I'd love to do all 3! Side by side! I want to be able to inspire the young generation like myself, to believe that they can do what they put their minds to.

I believe that I have a place in the entertainment industry. I love drama shows and feel myself being a cast member when I watch them. I get so lost in story lines, imagining how I would interact with the scene, or what I would have played out differently. I work so well with others, I love to bounce ideas off other people, and also get their thoughts and feedback. And let's face it, you need to be a people person in this industry, and I am EXACTLY that. As my grandad would say, I could talk the hind legs off a donkey! (not quite sure if i take that as a compliment or insult but he's my grandad, so we'll let him off :))
