FROM

Georgiana Iatrou

I was speaking full sentences by the age of two and I guess I never stopped! Then I found out I can get fame and money just for talking! Paired with my flare for the dramatic and my creativity, acting seems like it was made for me!

I really love being in the spotlight! I have had the opportunity to present some small theatrical roles in my theatre classes. I enjoyed learning the lingo, playing theatre games and practicing my lines for our presentations. I learned that I am a quick study and I take direction really well.

I am interested in any role, no matter how big or how small!

Thank you for your consideration,

Georgiana
