

Bryson King

I'm Bryson King. I'm 9 years old and full of life. I love to sing, dance and be loud. I have many siblings that keep my imagination wild, between legos and going outside to explore the woods, I have an active childhood. I participate in many sports, my favorites being, MMA (mixed martial arts) and Track, and I love video games. Specifically Zelda and Ninja Turtles.

Singing, dancing and just being loud and obnoxious is just me. I love all kinds of music. Something with a beat gets me dancing moves going. I'm not the best dancer but really there is no "bad" dancing. Life's too short to be serious all the time. Besides who creates dance moves without first dancing them out?!

My siblings range from all ages so my imagination can go from toddler to adult. I love to use my legos and action figures to create stories, like a minecraft world with shark zombies attacking and a self destructing fort that has a special door that doesn't allow zombies to get in! I also created the same fort outside around an apple tree. My siblings and I pretend we are running from the zombies and have a secret base.

In all my craziness as a child I also participate in MMA and Track with my family. I love to practice the karate kicks and racing my brother in track. My favorite part of MMA is fight night. It's the night we get to fight each other and not get in trouble for fighting! In Track I get to race my friends and my brother. We also get to throw things and jump hurdles.

When I'm not outside or at sports practice, my favorite time of the day is when I get to play video games. My absolute favorites are Zelda and Ninja Turtles. I am on a mission in Zelda to save the princess. In Ninja Turtles I am also the hero but I save everyone from the bad guys.
