Dear Showcase personnel,

My name is Ethan Been. I'm 12 years old and live in Virginia Beach, Virginia. My personality traits can be arranged in a long list but to name a few: I'm kind, helpful, respectful, comedic, intelligent, and dramatic. When I'm not at school I like to ride my bike, hang out with friends, film videos, make comics and play with my one-year-old German shepherd, "Diesel."

I have wanted to become an actor since the age of 8. I watched my first Mission Impossible and I saw the stunts that Tom Cruise was doing, and I thought that looked cool. I started my YouTube channel, "Eraptor612" where I post vlogs then later turned it into self-producing live action movies.
