

I'm from Westfield, PA, it's a small rural town that is located near the Pennsylvania Grand Canyon. My mom and dad saw the audition ad on Facebook and signed me up for this, I'm having so much fun and learning a lot. I have one brother that is younger and I have a dog named Jasmine, she is one. I go to school and I'm in first grade, my favorite subject is math.

I want to be an actor because I think it will be fun, I like to act out different things, and I've always wanted to be on TV. I want to be able to pretend I'm a superhero and act with other people. I want to be the guy on TV that everybody wants to watch.
